TRADE. Business to-day was not active. One reason is that it was not packet day, and fow shipments were made by river. The New York Economist says: The year 1870, will show a considerable infinitely in the numbers of prominent 35 Madison Street, Memphis, Tenn. and leading members of the dry goods in terest, over that of 1800. The result of the business for the past two years particularly, has shown that the landlords' inter-st was the first consideration, while the perchants' partook of a secondary nature, The high rents, heavy expenses, large risks and depreciation of merchandise have each and all had their influence in making up the determination of a great number to withdraw from mercantile life and engage in other pursuits more lucra-tive yet less annoying. Thus we find Farnham, Gilbert, Jr. & Co., will go out withdrew from the ranks of our leading houses, and Mr. Opdyke will join the banking house of Geo. Opdyke & Co.; Mr. Wm. C. Sheldon, of Buckley, Sheldon & Co. will join with Mr. Leonard, of Leonard, Rhodes & Grovener, and go in the banking business; Mr. Harris Pardee will set to the the banking business. retire from the house of Pardee, Bates & Co, and the firm will be continued under the name of L.
